

Multilateral Trainee Programme 2013 for Judges of Administrative Courts

Programme Description

In cooperation with the Bund deutscher Verwaltungsrichter und Verwaltungsrichterrinnen (BDVR) the Deutsche Stiftung für internationale rechtliche Zusammenarbeit e.V. (IRZ) will organise in 2013 for the first time a trainee programme for judges of administrative courts respectively for other members of the judiciary who are involved in legal proceedings in administrative disputes.

For the participation in the programme a very good command of the German language is essential.

The arrival of the participants is scheduled for 1 December 2013. During the period from 2 - 7 December an introductory course into German administrative law will take place in Bonn. On 8 November the participants will travel to the respective locations where the internships will take place. During the period from 9 – 14 December the participants will have the opportunity to get to know the procedure in German administrative courts and to exchange experiences with their German colleagues. On 15 December the participants will again travel to Bonn, where an evaluation seminar will be held on 16 December. The return to the home countries is scheduled for 17 December 2013.

The organisers will provide the following benefits for the participants:

- free board and lodging during the seminars in Bonn
- travel costs from Bonn to the place of internship and from there back to Bonn
- provision of materials (Creifeld's Dictionary of Legal Terms, Nomos legal texts "public law" etc.)
- free accommodation (depending on availability in a host family or a boarding house) during the internship period
- a monetary subsistence allowance for necessary expenditures during the internship period in the amount of 150 €
- a health insurance which covers the costs of medical treatment in the case of acute illness

According to international practice the participants have to bear the travel costs to and from Germany themselves.

The internship programme is addressed to the following countries: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldova, Poland, Romania, Russian Federation, Serbia, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. Depending on the number of applications from the invited countries, one or two places will be granted per country.
